

WE are opposed to LPFMs taking priority over current FM translator service. We do not want the FM translators forced off the air. What is the rationale for this proposed change?